

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Isen, Culverwell Join People For Puget Sound Board of Directors

SEATTLE WA Oct 28, 2009

People For Puget Sound Board of Directors this month welcomed Cheryl Isen of Isen and Company and Hilary Culverwell of Starrfish Environmental Consulting to serve three-year terms guiding the citizen-based conservation organization.

Hilary Culverwell, a Bellingham resident, is principal of Starrfish Environmental Consulting, which provides consulting services to local and state resource agencies, universities and others in facilitation, outreach, research, writing, and project management. The firm focuses on stormwater management/low impact development, habitat protection and conservation, and species recovery.

Cheryl Isen, a Fall City resident, is president of Isen and Company, a strategic marketing and public relations firm that specializes in helping early-to-mid stage companies achieve a bottom-line, measurable difference. Isen writes a column for the Puget Sound Business Journal and also provides a weekly marketing segment for a business radio program on Progressive Talk radio, AM 1090.

People For Puget Sound's Board of Directors also thanked retiring board members Jim Syck, Melissa Mager and Sydney Brinkerhoff. Board members serve three-year terms and are limited to serving two consecutive terms.

People For Puget Sound works with people for a clean and healthy Sound. Since 1991 it has protected and restored habitat through education and action.
